Family Mediation – Making it Count

FRMP is proud to announce “Family Mediation – Making it Count” a professional development forum for metropolitan homelessness and reconciliation workers and FRMP private practitioners.

The aim of the event is to provide opportunities for sector enhancement of family inclusive practice, as well as bringing together the homelessness sector, family centred programs and counsellors/psychologists.

The Forum will be presented by family mediators Angela Dupuche and Raneé Cornell and include presentations on mediation and transformative mediation.

When:

Thursday 17 September 2009
2:00 – 4:00pm

Where:

Queen Victoria Women’s Centre; Level four,
210 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne.

RSVP:
